

Communicare Family Day Care Philosophy

Communicare Family Day Care Service believes in the rights of the child. We strive to support educators to create a safe, educational, inclusive and nurturing environment to give children the best start in life.

We recognise that families are a child's first teacher and encourage a meaningful open relationship to be developed between the family, the educator and the service through communication, support and flexibility. We are a service of diverse cultural belongings and strive to bring our community and educators together to enhance children's education and sense of belonging.

We work as a team to promote educators professional identity and offer support and guidance to provide quality services who are unique have high expectations and industry relevant skills and knowledge.
